New Year's Eve

Monday December 31st, 2007

La Cucina invites you to honour Italian New Year's Eve customs with us in order to invoke good fortune in 2008. Be entertained by live music while enjoying a sumptuous meal, including traditional New Year's Eve fare such as lentils, whose coin shape promises future prosperity, and zampone di maiale, whose richness suggests the richness of the year to come. We will even cast off bad luck and bad habits by throwing them out the window, as Italians do! As the new year begins, thus it will continue, so begin it at La Cucina with a celebration to remember.

Auguri e Buon Anno!

Early seating 5:30 pm

Late seating 9:00 pm

Menus and prices for both seatings can be viewed on our website.
