

Carnevale di Venezia

"It's Acceptable To Go Mad Once A Year"

Fantasia...Cibo...Follia
(Fantasy...Food...Foolery)

Tuesday February 5, 2008

From the Feast of the Epiphany through Martedì Grasso, Fat Tuesday (the day before Ash Wednesday) is the time for celebrations. Venice is particularly known for her traditions of masks and fantasy, disguise and intrigue. This festive season is a time for indulging the palate before the austerity of Lent. Join us as La Cucina hosts its annual carnevale celebration, featuring live music from accordionist Armando Carere, and a characteristic Venetian menu of seven courses paired with select Venetian wines.

Reserve now to secure your place in the masquerade; or consider a gift certificate for special friends who appreciate fine food and wine.

The Perfect Holiday Gift

The Carnevale menu can be viewed on our website.
