

San Valentino alla Vita Nouva

“Così mi trovo in amorosa erranza!”

“Thus do I wander in a maze of love!”

-Dante Alighieri

Thursday February 14th, 2008

Dante Alighieri was just nine years old in 1274 when he first saw the gracious Beatrice, and he was never the same again. Beatrice obsessed him, and as Dante struggled to understand what love is, he wrote some of the most beautiful poetry in the world. This poetry, about the suffering the lover endures on behalf of his ungrateful lady and about the joys and delights of love, continues to inspire poets and lovers everywhere. Join us at La Cucina as we celebrate the love of one of Italy's greatest poets for his muse. Our special Saint Valentine's Day menu will seduce you, and at the late seating, you will also be wooed by a reading of some poetry by Dante and his friends, who described for each other their ladies' beauties.

Early seating 5:30 pm

Late seating 9:00 pm

Menus and prices for both seatings can be viewed on our website.
